Chamber Boosts Local Clean-Up Week Drive

Health Officials Issue Reminders For C of C Drive

The Cameron Chamber health and sanitation committee today issued these public health reminders prior to the Clean-Up Campaign next week.

Polluted water may spread disease. All wells should be covered, private wells are often questionably health-wise safe.

Mosquitoes breed in stagnant water. Dangle fever mosquitoes breed in water filled cans, flower vases and old auto tires. Health officials recommend keeping home premises neat.

Flies and rats carry filth and disease from privies, which pollute the soil and ground water. Officials recommend usage should be eliminated wherever possible and carefully guarded where necessary.

Rats and flies thrive on garbage. Rats spread typhus and other diseases while flies spread diarrhea, typhoid and other diseases. Garbage should be kept sealed in garbage cans.

Rats live in trash and rubbish. They breed in dark places and around lumber piles and burrow there. If lumber piles are necessary health authorities recommend the y should be open and 18 inches above the ground.

Committee members also noted that rats eat all kinds of feed, destroying much property and starting many fires each year.

STATE APPROVED — City fathers made state-approved water for Cameron official last week as they gathered at the east city limits to emplace this "state-approved" sign. It was the climax of about 10 years of bond issues, construction and planning for several city administrations. Completed during the past two years have been a city water reservoir with a two-million gallon capacity, pump station, waterlines and plant building. Smiling satisfaction above are: (from left) Councilmen Roy Griffith and Sam Houston, Mayor Bassel Wilson, Police Chief Chester Simons, Councilmen Lincoln Mondrik and Richard Moseley, and City Water Supt. Alvin Hefft.

Trucks To Haul Trash, Debris All Next Week

The Cameron Chamber of Commerce is inaugurating an all-out City Clean-Up Campaign Monday, Manager Richard Moseley told The Herald today.

Complete street and clean-up equipment of the City of Cameron will be available during the six-day drive, May 11-16.

President Milton Schiller announced that the Chamber urges every citizen of Cameron to join in the campaign to clean up trash, weeds, tree limbs and debris in the annual drive to make Cameron sparkle.

Special Trash Pickup

City Works Supt. John Earle said that trash pickup will be conducted throughout the city following the same weekly pickup schedule of the city garbage truck route. Additional trucks will cover the routes, he said, to pick up the accumulation of debris.

Moseley said the week-long drive depends on three factors: the Chamber co-ordinating the efforts of city workmen and townspeople in beautifying Cameron.

The Cameron Chamber is distributing circulars through Scout troops and churches and cleanup promotion information through press and radio.

The police department will make loudspeaker appeals for civic cooperation from the patrol car throughout the week, he added.

Goal of the annual spring clean-up drive is to clear as much weeds, trash and other debris as possible from Cameron as well as spraying stagnant water and clearing trash and privies that attract rats and flies, city officials said.

Earle asked that citizens call 1433 if they desire spraying of stagnant water near their homes.

Cemetery Day

Combined efforts to clean up and paint up Cameron residential and business areas follows a successful Cemetery Day April 30. Officials said about 16 people joined city workmen in clearing gravesites last week.

City Fire Marshal John Eanes noted that weeds and accumulations of tree branches and other greenery are not a fire hazard at present but would be dangerous later in the summer. He urged citizens to join in the clean-up drive for better fire safety.

Moseley said that Cameron residents will have to do the work, but the Chamber, the city and its public works agencies will provide maximum assistance in making this spring clean-up drive one of the best in Cameron's history.

Temple Firm Wins Bid For FM 2269

A contract for the construction of grading, structures, base and surfacing on Farm-to-market Road 2269 in Milam County was awarded in Austin this week, C. B. Thammes, District Highway Engineer at Bryan has announced.

The firm of B. H. C. Materials Co. Temple submitted the low bid of $271,532.59 on the project which runs from FM 465 at Yarroton Southeast to State Highway 36 at Cameron a distance of 10 miles.

Resident Engineer Carol D. Zeigler of Hearne will be in charge of the project for the Highway Department, and it is estimated that the work will take 175 days to complete.

The councilman was making a strong point in his argument. His delivery mounted . . . and he paused, only slightly, before moving to his next point.

"I believe," he began again, "that we need . . ."

"Dewberries," not-so-small voice from nowhere claimed. "Anybody want any dewberries?"

A small boy selling the local fruit had walked noiselessly into City Hall and called out his wares unbeknownst to press, officials or onlookers.

There was a short hesitation while somebody said "we didn't need any." Then everybody laughed. And the lad disappeared out the door as quickly as he entered.

"What was I saying?" the councilman said.

"Dewberries," another councilman chided. And the meeting continued.

100-100-100

It happened in City Council this week. Interesting how a humorous incident sparks interest in meetings of most groups.

Not as humorous, though, are reports of break-ins occurring at some local churches.

Intruders have carried off some altar articles of intrinsic and traditional value from the All Saint's Episcopal Church. And one church member said that articles have been missing from the First Methodist Church, across the street.

Vandalism at any time is unfortunate. But taking things from a church itself goes to the extreme. We're sure the congregations of these churches would appreciate the return of the missing articles. Their use is for something more than mundane bartering for dollars. We hope the articles are found.

WEATHER NOTES

Temperatures ranged in the high 80's this week as weather was generally warm and sunny. The weatherman called for continued mild weather and possible showers by the week end. Total precipitation in the past seven days was .44 of an inch May 2. Total April rainfall was 4.56 inches.

Rosenthal Wins Poultry Crown

Edward Rosenthal, Thorndale, Saturday received the grand champion trophy for his five pullet entries in the fifth annual Cameron Poultry Show. He was sponsored by Albert Hajovsky, Cameron businessman.

Named reserve grand champion at the barbecue banquet Saturday was Dwight Fuchs, Buckholts, for his top entry of cockerels. His sponsor was Joe Glaser, Buckholts.

Champion trophies and prize money were presented to 10 top winners in each division of the Poultry Show, sponsored annually by Cameron Chamber membership.

In a short after-dinner speech, Jim Knight, Alcoa public relations chief, told his audience of growers and sponsors that the poultry show proved the success of free enterprise. He was introduced by Chamber President Milton Schiller.

The Poultry Show Saturday at the courthouse square was run in conjunction with a Mall and city-wide Dollar Days termed "successful" by participating businesses despite two showers Saturday.

Other awards went to: Nancy Baggett, Tracy, for heaviest flock of pullets and Dwight Fuchs, Buckholts, for heaviest cockerels.

A pre-judging contest was won by James Cargill, Davilla, and second, Wayne Moraw, Cameron.

Several thousand people attended the poultry show-Mall held Friday and Saturday in Cameron, Chamber Manager Richard Moseley estimated. Inclement weather Saturday slowed attendance twice during the day.

Lester Byrd, chairman of the Chamber poultry committee, served as master of ceremonies at the poultry banquet. He introduced members of the poultry committee and E. A. Parnell, Texas A&M, who judged the 90 entries in the show.

Cemetery Day Successful . . .

Street Bids Due May 19

The City Council Tuesday night heard reports on the fire recorder warning system and noted that bids for construction E. 10th St. and N. Jackson would be opened May 19.

Public Works Supt. J. B. Earle termed Cameron's first Cemetery Day clean-up a success. He told councilmen that about 16 people joined in the clean-up work last Thursday.

Mayor Bassel Wilson said he hoped to see the event an annual affair for city workmen and Cameron residents.

He said that several Cameron residents had mentioned raising city taxes by 5 cents per $100 valuation to raise additional revenue for better upkeep of the cemetery. It would mean about an additional $3,000 available on an approximate city valuation $5.5 millions.

Delay Payment

Councilmen voted to delay consideration of any construction claims on the city concerning finishing work along N. Fourth St. Contractors under State Highway Dept. direction are completing concrete.

City Atty. Jack Prescott advised that claims due to be paid by the city to property owners along the route would best be considered when construction work is completed by the state.

In other discussion, the Council considered complaints of weeds and grass growing on vacant lots in Cameron and asked Earle to continue working out clean-up arrangements with property owners.

Mayor Wilson and councilmen said that the city would join with the Cameron Chamber in its annual spring clean-up drive May 11-16 by furnishing equipment and personnel to pick up tree limbs, trash and other accumulations set out for destruction. City vehicles will be used to follow the regular city garbage route next week to pick debris at all Cameron homes.

Councilman Richard Moseley said Taylor Fire officials recommended the Southwest Bell Telephone fire recorder system over a radio system also being considered for use in Cameron.

He said that Taylor officials told him maintenance on radio equipment was high, though radios were used on fire equipment there.

Tom Murray's Column

THREE Southwest Conference football teams — Baylor, Texas A&M and Arkansas, each lost a valuable performer during spring training.

The Texas Aggies counted heavily upon Fred Praetorius, 220-pound all-state and out of Fort Worth Paschal. After less than one week of spring training, the great sophomore-to-be told head coach Jim Myers he wanted no more.

Then Arkansas, where rapid ball-carriers are more abundant than farmers at Texas U., sadly relayed the news Jim Moity was quitting the Razorbacks.

The swift Hog halfback was an all-Southwest Conference choice last fall, hotfooted the 100-yard dash in something like 9.6 with 190-pounds of sinew to boot.

A gifted performer, Moity chose inactivity over a possible permanent injury of some sort.

Baylor's John Bridgers, searching feverishly for means of checking the Bears' sagging defense, snuffed former All-State Garland Center Arlis James to guard.

A junior to be, James was considered one of the finest line prospects in the conference. Obviously miffed over the switch, he quit. He told sports writers, "I'm no interior lineman. I'm a linebacker and that's what I want to play." RED TOLAR, Warren's fabulous quarterback, says he is going to SMU but has not signed. So, the recruiting fever still rages around the 190-pound genius. Sought by everybody, he was supposedly ready to attend Baylor. Upon visiting the Baylor Campus, he decided to drive up to Dallas, unattended, and came back wild about SMU (so the story goes). One of Baylor's outstanding backs during spring training? Why Billy Paviliska, the Liberty flyer. Take a look at some of the non-descript players signing with the Southwest Conference schools and you will see many stars of the future. Four years ago Jew had heard of H. G. Anderson but the LaMarque boy was one of the conference's leading guards at Texas and made the Oklahoma all-opponent team.

Larry Stephens, Angleton's man-mountain all-America schoolboy end, may be receiving those honors as a collegiate tackle at UT, if he beats out Baytown's Tillman O'Brien, a job in itself.

The Texas Aggies have the inside track of Freeport's James (Bull) Phillips, a prize guard prospect at 215. The Ags are supposed to have first call on El Campo Sprinter Eugene Dornak also. Dornak has done 9.7. The Ricebirds' Ben Krenek, an outstanding football player, has already chosen Aggeland.

Bob Schulze, UT frosh coach is still high on Jimmy Heijl, Lamar Consolidated's center who enrolled at Texas unheralded. "He's a football player," Schulze beams. How about the Sam Houston Bearcats? Ray Bengie's team simply lambasts anybody. They hold an edge over every Southwest Conference team they have met except current leader Texas, with whom they split a pair.

Congratulations to Cameron, new district track champions. Don Harmon, Baylor golfer who won the Hearne Invitational golf tournament, was awarded a scholarship by the Houston Golf Association when a high school senior at Baytown. He was chosen the outstanding junior golfer in the Houston area.

Once again Lockhart High baseballers are receiving tutoring from one of the former glamour boys of National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament. Guss Hrcir came off the bench to bat Texas to the NCAA title at Omaha in 1959.

Weather Hinders Fishing

By Vern Sanford

Coastal fishing has been plagued with bad weather practically every week this year. It can't continue that way, forever. At least it never has.

The few good days, however, have given some indication that there will be fabulous fishing again this year. Even in the cold winter months there were heavy catches of trout. Specs still are hitting; redfish are on the increase; and Spanish mackerel right now are beginning to take the lures.

If you've never done any mackerel fishing, give it a whirl this spring and summer. When they are really hitting, it is fantastic all along the Texas coastline.

Mackerel run in schools. Usually get it done at any of the fish houses at the docks. And it is no trouble to get a barrel full.

In fact, many fishermen who go to the coast now in station wagons take along a plastic 20-gallon garbage container. They fill it with fish and then pack it with chipped ice. After covering the fish with a layer of ice they stuff the top of the container with newspapers or some other insulation, before closing the lid.

Fish will ride for several hundred miles, so packed, without your having to add more ice. Once home they can be placed in the deep freeze for future use.

Both mackerel and kings are wonderful for barbecuing over charcoal or for smoking.

Which leads to this suggestion. A friend tells of a good way to smoke fish, or wild game. Buy an old electric refrigerator, which you can get for a few bucks.

Take out the motor equipment. Bore a couple of weep holes near the top of the box. Place your meat on the refrigerator shelves, with cedar or mesquite charcoal in a pan at the bottom.

The coal should smoulder very slowly from four to six hours, depending on the toughness of the meat. They'll knock the bait twenty feet into the air and follow it all the way.

You have to wind hard to bring them in. When they reach the side of the boat, the boatman socks a gaff into them. When he lifts to the rail, he hits them across the back of head with a miniature pick handle. Locally it is known as a "pacifier" and sometimes as a "priest."

Spanish mackerel and kings are good eating. It is well, however, to bleed each as soon as possible. You can clean and fillet them, or

Most of those fishermen used mullet for bait. They rigged with from 18 to 27 pounds, with wire leaders. Their lures were trolled out some 100 or 150 feet back of the boat. Usually two persons were fishing from the boat. When they for them with heavy equipment. It all depends on how much action you want.

Sometimes you can get kings and mackerel from the same boat. The kings are taken mostly by trolling, however. Some of the boatmen use mullet as bait. Others use lures, like big jigs, spoons, or locally made "Hooties".

meat, the cooking will be done entirely with the hot smoke.

MAKE IT A "HOLIDAY" WEEKEND WITH A LONG DISTANCE CALL

Last year, many of us had a three-day weekend because Decoration Day fell on Friday, and it'll be the same way next year when it comes on Monday. But this year, the calendar threw us a little curve and Decoration Day lands on Saturday. This cuts out the chance for a three-day holiday which means not enough time for a three-day holiday, which means there's not enough time for an out-of-town trip to see friends or family.

Since a holiday is a family get-together day, several of my friends have told me they still plan to "get together" with a long distance call over the week-end. "It's the next best thing to visiting in person," one fellow told me, "and we can make quite a few out-of-town calls for the cost of traveling over the week-end."

It makes sense to me, and I hope many of you will perk up your Decoration Day weekend here in Cameron with a long distance call to friends or family.

As you know, rates are lower after 6 p.m. weekdays and all day Sunday. And when you call, call station-to-station. That way, you'll be able to make three calls for about the price of two. That's a real saving!

IT'S FUN TO PHONE

How often do we use the phone "just for the fun of it"? Have you ever stopped to think how many times a telephone call has been the beginning of a lasting friendship, or a pleasant evening with neighbors?

People often tell me of calls they made "just to visit." You've probably done the same. Chances are good you'll do it again.

Why? That's easy. Because it's fun to phone.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

CHIROPRACTIC Scholarship Fund

Dr. Joe R. Parker, D. C., 108 North Central, has made known the availability of grants-in-aid to nine of the accredited colleges of chiropractic throughout the United States and Canada for qualified young men and women, leading to the degree of Doctor of Chiropractic.

The purpose of these grants-in-aid is to make available to exceptional young men and women throughout the U. S. and Canada the opportunity of securing an education in one segment of the healing arts, at one of the many accredited colleges, where financial help is a definite need.

The prime prerequisite for consideration of a grant-in-aid under the Chiropractic Scholarship Fund is the establishment of this need for part or full financial help toward meeting the cost of tuition, books, and laboratory and fees, by the applicant.

Dr. Joe R. Parker indicates that complete details and applications for consideration of grants-in-aid may be obtained by contacting him, either in person, by phone, or by writing direct to his office address.

Where Goes Supply, Demand?

The ultimate of success is surplus. Every successful civilization has produced an abundance of the measure by which it grew. Rome flourished when its armies conquered the known world. England grew at the head of the British Empire with development of powerful trade abilities. France, Belgium and Spain did equally well in colonizing for trade. Ghengis Khan mobilized his Mongol hordes and ravaged Asia and Eastern Europe. The early Greeks developed a major European culture and nurtured Rome and our European heritage.

But the surpluses of these United States, generally considered the successful mark of a society of automation, have produced controls . . . legislated controls on agriculture production.

While we pay our farmers not to produce ($7 billions this fiscal year), hundreds of millions of Asiatics go hungry. While they strive as they starve to meet their own food requirements and U. S. Farm production is stymied, the law of supply and demand goes unrecognized, forgotten.

And with its passing goes incentive. Bureaucratic authority, becoming law unto itself, tells us how to negate the principle that must apply to any economy where goods and services are exchanged.

May we suggest that less consideration be given the ability to curtail and hoard and more interest be directed to transporting surpluses to peoples who can use them.

Surely these underdeveloped nations have something to exchange for the surpluses we warehouse in these United States. There must be a world market place where excess goods can still be exchanged.

We believe exchange, not overproduction is the problem. Deficit spending to finance payment for non-production is not the answer. This we are sure.

Why not bring world consumer and producer together by plying the problems of transportation? Burying foods and fibres will not feed the naked and hungry. Curtailed farm production and paying for crops not to be grown will destroy the farmer and his incentive. This we are sure.

Favorable placement of these surpluses would allow nature, economic nature to take its course.

The Little River
PhilosopherFidel Castro Didn't Fly Into Washington To See A Barber

Dear editor:

I don't know any more about Fidel Castro than he does about me, but I have been reading about his success in winning a revolution in Cuba and have found that things are working out about like I expected.

I mean, putting down a dictator, so long as it's not just swapping one dictator for another, is a highly commendable piece of work, but in these days, when you win a revolution or win a war, your troubles are just beginning. Sort of like getting married.

I mean, sitting out in the Cuban jungles plotting how to overthrow a dictator is a definite piece of work, and when you finally get him overthrown and he flies off to another country with a few million dollars, and you get through riding in triumph down main street and sit down behind a desk and size up the job ahead, the situation loses a lot of its glamour.

Heading the dictator off at the pass is one thing, but finding the tax money to build the roads the people can drive around on enjoying the freedom you've just given them is another thing. Getting the deed to a piece of land is not the same as paying off the mortgage on it.

Consequently, after Castro had been in office a few months, it didn't surprise me any to see him heading for the United States, and I don't think he was coming over here to see a barber. I don't think he came right out and asked for a loan, but when any government official in the world has a big job on his hands requiring a lot of money and he flies to Washington, you can feel reasonably sure he's not just sight-seeing. Castro you can be sure was never kicked in the head by a horse.

What he was doing was proving he wasn't a Communist, as this is the main step these days in getting an international loan. Understand, I have no complaint about the U. S. not lending money to anybody it suspects is a Communist, but all the bankers I know go a few steps further. They're so out of touch with the international situation they not only demand that you not be a Communist, they also check around to see if you're a safe risk. This is what keeps banks sound, but it sure ain't international.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Capital Report

Legislators Find
No Agreement

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—"They said it couldn't be done. And, sure enough, it couldn't."

This is the attitude of many tired lawmakers toward the session-long struggle to raise $200,000,000 in new tax money.

As the regular session drew near to a close, House members, in effect, admitted they couldn't agree on a program that would do the job. House sent to the Senate the scraps of selective sales tax measure (HB 727) and a bill to increase the corporation franchise tax for one year only.

There was off-the-cuff talk among House members of someone's proposing at a later date to solve the problem by cutting the appropriation bill across the board to 4 per cent less than the 1958-59 budget. This would bring such violent reaction, it was thought, that both lawmakers and their constituents would be more receptive to new tax proposals.

Senate State Affairs Committee has indicated it has no intention of trying to shove through a tax program just to beat the May 12 deadline of the regular session. Full hearings have been promised for all viewpoints.

Fire-Police Bill Passes

House voted 83 to 56 for a bill that would shorten hours of city firemen and policemen.

Senate already has given the bill final passage. After one more favorable vote in the House, it will be ready to go to the Governor.

Opponents tried, unsuccessfully, to get the bill amended to give local citizens a chance to vote on whether the bill would affect their cities. Supporters protested this would "kill the bill."

Truck Bill Signed

Gov. Price Daniel signed the bill raising the truck load limit from 58,400 to 72,000 pounds.

But he made no bones about his misgivings. He recommended that the State Highway Department and county commissioners courts take steps to keep the heavier loads off farm roads and others that might be damaged.

Before deciding to sign the bill, the governor took an unusual step, by calling a public hearing.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer testified there were some 5,000 miles of road that couldn't take 72,000-pound loads. Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, said more license and weight inspectors would be needed. Higher registration fees were expected to provide revenue for this.

17 Potential Governors

Sixteen successors to the governor would be designated in a proposed constitutional amendment that has Senate approval.

Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo is sponsoring the measure designed to assure a living chief executive in case of atomic attack.

Line of succession would be the lieutenant governor, president pro tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House, Attorney General, Secretary of State and the chief justices of the 11 courts of civil appeals in their numerical order.

How Clean The Cow

Sen. Grady Hazlewood's bill to regulate milk imports is stirring up more commotion than a short in a milking machine.

Senate passed the bill, and a subcommittee of the House Livestock Committee approved it. Bill would require that milk brought into Texas from other states meet same standards as those imposed on Texas producers.

Milk producers, who favor the bill, say it will protect consumers from unsanitary milk. Milk producers, who oppose the bill, report that all states have adequate sanitation standards. They contend the producers are seeking a device for excluding out-of-state milk so local prices can be jacked up.

Big Year Ahead

A forecast of the hubbub that can be expected in the political year of 1960 was seen as the Legislature debated election law changes.

Both House and Senate gave final approval to a bill that would allow a candidate's name to appear twice on the same ballot. It is designed to allow U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson run for another Senate term and accept a presidential nomination at the same time, if approved unanimously; House, by a 129-to-15 vote. Liberal members, mostly from Houston, objected.

At New Cameron Drug

Best Prescription Service

Earl Curtis, owner of New Cameron Drug, points with pride at his outstanding prescription center where a complete, fresh supply of anti-biotics and drugs are always available.

New Cameron's prescription service also includes direct lines to doctors offices for fast, efficient prescription service when time is of utmost importance, and registered pharmacists.

Curtis, a graduate of the School of Pharmacy, University of Texas, has received national awards for his merchandising and pharmeutical work from Rexall Drug Co.,

drug distributors. They include a plaque for outstanding merchandising in drug business and a copy of an ancient mortar and pestle of the early 15th century.

In addition to its up-to-date prescription center, New Cameron Drug offers a wide selection of recently expanded facilities.

Another exclusive feature at New Cameron Drug is their Milam Voucher Plan.

"Premium vouchers may be earned with any purchase at New Cameron Drug," Curtis says, "and a list of the gifts with the amount of premiums needed are available at the store." He adds, "Buy at home - save at home - and earn prepared drugs with the famous Rexall label and a wide line of gift items. Rexall products are nationally advertised, Curtis points out.

Also featured are a wide line of cosmetics including Revlon, Dorothy Gray and Cara Nome.

Other features are a fountain service that operates every day except Sunday and a complete stock of tobaccos, cigarettes and cigars for the smoker.

Robinson Texaco Offers Complete Automobile Care

Since going into the service station business in 1930, W. A. L.
Robinson has offered a complete auto service that rates his company's motto, "everything for the car."

And that is what Robinson offers today for motorists who are served by his competent staff of four at his Texaco Service Station, 115
N. Fannin, Cameron.

A dealer in many name-brand
auto accessories and equipment, Robinson prides himself in offering the public personalized pickup and delivery service as an added feature of his well-known road service.

Chief among his many name-brand auto services is the sale of B. F. Goodrich tires and batteries for every make of car, tractor, or truck. He points out he stocks a complete line of vehicle tires and tubes for anything from a wheel-barrow to road machinery.

"Our name-brand sales include Dupont plastic car accessories, Fram filters, AC ignition products and a host of other popular brand auto items," Robinson says.

"And our auto road service is complete, including lube, wash battery charging, wheel packing and all other extras to make our road service second to none," he emphasizes.

Stedman Tractor Co. For Fords

You get power you can depend on with Ford Powermaster trac-

Stedman, agency owner.

Stedman points out that his tractor agency features sales and service on all Ford tractors and field equipment and New Holland bal-ers, rakes and mowers.

His company also handles the famous Maytag gas range, washers. Another product well-known for its efficient operation, Stedman says, is Toro Lawnmowers.

"We have operated a Ford tractor agency since 1946 on the basis of fair price on all our farm equipment, good trade-in allowances on used equipment and the best Ford

Hugh Smith has managed Sted-

The agency was moved to its pre-

Barkemeyer, our service manager and Herman Reineke, tractor me-

Milam Agent Reports:

Flies, Health Don't Mix

By J. D. Moore

Flies carry disease germs that endanger health. Don't give them a chance to live and multiply.

Sanitation is the first step in controlling this pest, according to extension entomologists. Make sure all windows and doors are tightly screened. Keep garbage and other refuse tightly covered and dispose of it frequently by burning or burying. Keep compost piles covered and clean up after dogs, cats and chickens.

Killing is the second step against this pest. Kill flies by spraying in and around the house. Use both the space and surface-type spray. The new bait preparations are good for use outside where flies gather.

To control houseflies spray with a 2 1/2 malathion spray or treat outside areas with a malathion bait.

FLEAS—Several species of fleas attack poultry and household pets. Since the immature stages of the insect are spent in the soil, fleas often become a nuisance in garages and home lawns. Fleas may serve as intermediate hosts for certain internal parasites of household pets and may spread disease.

Dogs should be dusted thoroughly with 4 per cent malathion dust or dipped in 0.5 per cent malathion water solution. In garages and on home lawns around the home treat with a 2 1/2 malathion spray or 4 per cent malathion dust.

ANTS—Many species of ants can be found in the home. The most common species are the Pharaoh ant, Thief ant, Black Crazy and Fire ant and Argentine ant. The workers range in size from the tiny Pharaoh ant, 1-12 inch to the fire ant about 1/4 inch.

Ants vary in color from yellow to reddish-brown or black. They feed on any kind of food material in the home including sweets and greasy foods. The thief ant prefers any greasy foods. Tiny ants, such as the Pharaoh ant, may nest in the wall behind baseboards, in furniture, and almost anywhere. The Argentine ant and fire ant nest outside the home. For their control, it is essential to locate and destroy the nests.

Inside the home apply 2 or 3 per cent chlorodane or 0.5 per cent ants are notices, giving particular attention to drain boards, window sills, door thresholds, and pantry shelves. Repeated applications of insecticides may be needed to control ants in the home.

A good practice is to spray under the house with a liquid dieldrin emulsion spray using 4 tablespoons to one gallon of water. If sprayed around the foundations of the house termites will be discouraged from attacking foundations as well as controlling ants.

Bees In Business

Bees are becoming increasingly important to Texas farmers as crop pollinators. Last year, according to C. J. Burgin, state entomologist, 219 permits were granted covering the relocation of 118,351 colonies of bees.

Farm Safety

"Safety Makes Sense" will be theme for the 16th annual Farm Safety Week, July 19-25.

Tractors Cause 1,100 Fatalities Each Farm Year

College Station—Ignorance and carelessness in using farm machinery are sure ways to make the headlines. Records show that more than 1,100 fatalities in the United States each year are caused by tractor accidents.

Extension Agricultural Engineer Willie L. Ulich offers suggestions for preventing such accidents.

A child's safety is a parent's responsibility, he says. Teach children the importance of safety and point out dangers involved in the use of machinery. Emphasize that operating a tractor is a job for a mature person.

Tractors are involved in 35 per cent of all farm accidents making it the Number One farm killer. Forty per cent of all tractor accidents are fatal to the operator.

Chances of an upset, points out the engineer, increase four times when speed is doubled. If possible lock brake pedals together when driving on the open highway. Use brakes cautiously and keep them evenly adjusted.

Other safety suggestions by Ulich are: throttle down before making turns, do not carry extra riders on either the tractor or on trailed implements, and avoid climbing steep banks with the tractor since overturns are one of the chief causes of tractor accidents.

Be careful where you work. Often ditches, rocks and stumps are hidden by tall grass or brush and the tractor may overturn with little warning.

More Cotton Used?

USDA Additive Boosts Potential

COLLEGE STATION—Texas cotton producers and consumers should be interested in a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture announcement on the development of a practical method for producing cotton fabric with outstanding rot resistance and improved weather resistance.

Because of its improved properties, cotton fabric treated with the chemical promises to open new markets for cotton in awnings, tents, tarpaulins and other outdoor fabric items.

The treatment method, developed by the USDA's Agricultural Research Service, is based on the use of water soluble acid colloid of methylolmelamine. This chemical is well known for its resin-forming qualities. The resin, which penetrates the outer portion of the fiber cell wall to become a part of the fiber rather than just a coating, makes cotton virtually immune to rot and mildew as demonstrated by soil burial tests in the laboratory.

Untreated cotton buried in soils containing fabric-destroying bacteria was in shreds after one week. The treated cotton, on the other hand, still retained 100 per cent of its breaking strength after 21 weeks.

The chemical can also be used in conjunction with certain fabric coloring pigments to increase cotton's resistance to deterioration by sunshine. The treatment can also be applied successfully to many vat dyed fabrics.

And of major importance, said the announcement, cost of the treatment is expected to be relatively low and it can be applied with conventional textile finishing equipment.

Pauline Michalka Wins USAF Medal

Major Pauline T. Michalka, a native of Cameron has been awarded the Air Force Commendation Ribbon for her outstanding contributions to the 250th USAF Hospital, Mitchell Air Force Base, N.Y., by Col. M. A. Elkins, Mitchell AFB commander.

Martens, Tex., Man Reports—

Residual effect of ammonia increases maize yield

V. P. Rejeck, says: "I approached the use of ammonia cautiously, mostly because of the low average rainfall in this part of Texas. First I fertilized a small plot of cotton with Phillips 66 Ammonia. That cotton produced about twice as much lint as the unfertilized. This same strip of cotton land that got the ammonia was planted to milo the following year, but received no additional ammonia. The nitrogen carryover produced a 600-pound increase in maize grain. I was convinced that, even in severely dry years, Phillips 66 Ammonia is a good risk. This year, every acre I'm cultivating is getting an application of Phillips 66 Ammonia."

Other successful Texas farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased... profits on small grains are boosted through higher yields and improved forage... more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be easily applied by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia... it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.
